

Important Links

If you'd like to find out more about Port Hope and the surrounding area, we recommend these links. We urge you to see the town's and the Northumberland region's commitment to your success.

- Port Hope Website

Their site is filled with valuable information on the municipality, for businesses, residents and tourists. It has links to a wealth of detailed information.

- Port Hope Official Plan
Municipality of Port Hope Official Plan.

- Port Hope Visitors Guide 2008
Port Hope's annual events include Float Your Fanny Down the Ganny, an exciting crazy craft race that takes place along the Ganaraska River every April. The race draws up to 15,000 spectators every year!

- A site devoted to Port Hope's heritage conservation
With over 200 designated properties, the Municipality of Port Hope is recognized as an outstanding example of heritage conservation.

- Northumberland District Website
Northumberland is a thriving, south-eastern Ontario community strategically positioned along Highway 401 to access both Toronto and Kingston within a 1 to 1.5 hours drive.

- A guide to the municipalities of Northumberland
The municipalities of Northumberland Ontario have a combined population of 75,000.

- A guide to Northumberland tourism
Just one hour east of Toronto in Ontario, Canada, the rolling hills of Northumberland nestle around communities with a lot of unexpected surprises.

- Toronto Website

We recommend this site if you aren't familiar with Toronto and the GTA.